

Connection between Rosie's biological and adopted families

Marcia Baker, by marriage, ties Rosemarie Schulte's biological and adopted families together in this way:

Marcia's mother, Della Nye, was the sister of Almonte who married Marie Nason.

Marie Nason was daughter of Abraham & Sadie (Van Haften) Nason.

Abraham was the son of George & Annie (Vanderberg) Nason.

George Nason was the son of Jan Willems & Grietje (Vredeveld) Nason.

George Nason was the brother of Helen Nason who married Garrett Frielink.

Helen and Garrett's daughter, Frances Frielink, married Charles Lewis.

Frances and Charles Lewis' daughter, Helen Lewis, was the biological mother of Rosemarie.

Marcia Baker, b 1911 in Kalamazoo, married Alger Cook, b 1903 in Detroit.

Alger was the son of Carl & Ella (Meldrum) Cook.

Ella was daughter of James W. & Nancy (Loiselle) Meldrum

James W. was the son of James & Eleanora (Boyer) Meldrum.

James was the son of George & Marie Angelica (Chapoton) Meldrum.

George's brother, William Meldrum, married Genevieve Rivard.

Genevieve was the (adopted) 3rd cousin 4 times removed from Rosemarie Schulte.

Also, Genevieve's 2nd cousin was Eustache Trombly.

Eustache was the (adopted) gr-gr-grandfather of Rosie.

Eustache's son, January, was Rosie's (adopted) gr-grandfather.

January was the father of Alfred C. Trombly, the grandfather Rosie knew growing up.

Connection discovered on 8 December 2015 by Mariana Kopacz